SAMPLE HEALTH INSURANCE POLICY (FAKE DOCUMENT FOR TESTING)

Policy name: Sunrise Care Plus. All names, numbers and terms below are invented.

1. Coverage

The Sunrise Care Plus plan covers hospitalisation of more than 24 hours, including room rent, surgeon fees, medicines used during the stay and diagnostic tests ordered by the treating doctor.

The annual sum insured is Rs 5,00,000 per policy year for an individual and Rs 10,00,000 for a family floater of up to four members.

Pre-hospitalisation expenses are covered for 30 days before admission, and post-hospitalisation expenses are covered for 60 days after discharge.

Room rent is limited to 1% of the sum insured per day, and intensive care unit charges are limited to 2% of the sum insured per day.

Day-care procedures such as cataract surgery and dialysis are covered even when the stay is shorter than 24 hours.

Ambulance charges are reimbursed up to Rs 2,000 per hospitalisation when the ambulance is used to reach the hospital.

2. Waiting periods

Initial waiting period: no claim is payable for any illness during the first 30 days after the policy start date. This does not apply to accidents.

Pre-existing diseases: conditions that existed before the policy started are covered only after 36 months of continuous coverage.

Specified illnesses: hernia, cataract, joint replacement and kidney stones have a waiting period of 24 months.

Maternity: delivery and related expenses are covered only after 24 months of continuous coverage, up to Rs 50,000.

The waiting period for a condition restarts if the policy is allowed to lapse for more than 15 days after the renewal date.

3. Exclusions

The policy does not pay for cosmetic or plastic surgery unless it is needed after an accident or to treat a covered illness.

Dental treatment is excluded unless it requires hospitalisation because of an accident.

Injuries from adventure sports such as paragliding, bungee jumping and mountaineering above 3,000 metres are not covered.

Treatment related to infertility, weight loss surgery and sex change procedures is excluded.

Claims arising from war, nuclear risk, self-inflicted injury or the use of alcohol and drugs not prescribed by a doctor are not payable.

Experimental treatments and any treatment not approved by a recognised medical authority are excluded.

4. Claims and cancellation

Cashless claims: planned treatment must be notified to the insurer at least 48 hours before admission. For an emergency, notify the insurer within 24 hours of admission.

Reimbursement claims: submit the claim form with original bills and discharge summary within 15 days of discharge. Claims sent after 30 days of discharge may be rejected.

Co-payment: policyholders aged 60 years and above pay 10% of every admissible claim. Other members have no co-payment.

The insurer will settle or reject a complete claim within 30 days of receiving the last required document.

Cancellation: the policyholder may cancel within 15 days of receiving the policy and receive a refund of the premium after deducting the cost of any claim. After 15 days, no refund is given.

Grievances can be sent to the customer care team. If unresolved after 15 days, the policyholder may approach the insurance ombudsman.
